CALIFORNIA

POLICIES and PROCEDURES MANUAL:

POLICE

Subject: VEHICLE CODE EQUIPMENT CITATIONS

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this procedure is to specify the manner in which violations of the listed equipment sections of the Vehicle Code should be cited.

SECTIONS COVERED

As specified in Section 40303.5 of the California Vehicle Code, the following violations may be addressed with a corrective citation:

1. Any registration infraction set forth in Division 3 (commencing with Section 4000),
2. Any driver's license infraction set forth in Division 6 (commencing with Section 12500) and Subdivision (a) of Section 12951, relating to possession of driver's license.
3. Section 21291, relating to bicycle equipment.
4. Any infraction involving equipment set forth in Division 2 (commencing with Section 24000).

CITATION FORM

The violator should be issued a standard Barstow Police Department citation filling in all appropriate sections. The violator's date to appear shall be no less than 30 days from the date the citation is issued. (Exception: In certain instances, if the officer believes that the violation renders a vehicle unsafe for use on a public roadway, the officer may issue a 48 hour notice to appear).
